This application form is intended for use by lawful permanent residents, permanent residents in commuter status, and conditional permanent residents seeking to replace or renew their existing Permanent Resident Cards. Conditional permanent residents may use this application to replace their Permanent Resident Card, but not if the card has already expired or will expire within the next 90 days.

NOTE: Individuals who hold conditional permanent resident status (e.g. CR1, CR2, CF1, CF2) due to marriage or entrepreneurship are issued a two-year validity Permanent Resident Card. If your conditional permanent resident status is set to expire within the next 90 days, you cannot apply for a replacement Conditional Resident Card. Instead, you must submit a petition to remove the conditions on your residency as follows:

- 1           If your conditional permanent resident status is based on marriage to a U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident, and your two-year conditional permanent resident status is set to expire within the next 90 days, you must file Form I-751, Petition to Remove Conditions on Residence.
- 2           If your conditional permanent resident status is based on the creation of a new commercial enterprise and financial investment in the United States, and your conditional permanent resident status is expiring within the next 90 days, you must file Form I-829, Petition by Entrepreneur to Remove Conditions.

Once your Forms I-751 or I-829 have been properly filed and received, USCIS will automatically extend your conditional permanent resident status if necessary, until the petition has been adjudicated. The Form I-797 Receipt Notice that you receive for the pending petition will serve as evidence of your conditional permanent resident status.

USCIS offers its forms free of charge through its official website. To view, print, or fill out the forms, it is recommended that you use the latest version of Adobe Reader, which can be downloaded for free from <http://get.adobe.com/reader/>. If you are under 14 years of age, your parent or legal guardian may sign the application on your behalf. A legal guardian may also sign for a mentally incompetent person.

Once USCIS has received and confirmed the completeness of your application, you will be notified in writing (or via email notification if you filed your application electronically) if you are required to attend a biometric services appointment. If an appointment is necessary, the notice will provide you with the location of your local or designated USCIS Application Support Center (ASC) and the date and time of your appointment, or if you are currently overseas, instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to schedule an appointment.

If you are required to provide biometrics, at your appointment you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

If you have legally changed your name to a different name, you must submit appropriate legal documents that reflect the name change. Examples of acceptable documents include a registered copy of your marriage certificate, divorce decree, adoption decree, or any other court-issued document that proves your name was legally changed. For Item Numbers 5.a. - 5.c., please provide your name exactly as it appears on your current Permanent Resident Card. Even if your name has changed since the card was issued, please provide your full name exactly as it appears on the card.

It is important to note that USCIS will not mail a Permanent Resident Card to a foreign address. Your new Permanent Resident Card will only be mailed to a valid U.S. mailing address. It is important to note that USCIS will not mail a Permanent Resident Card to a foreign address. Your new Permanent Resident Card will only be mailed to a valid U.S. mailing address.

If you are a lawful permanent resident who plans to become a commuter, please follow the instructions for Item Number 2.h.1., which includes indicating the U.S. Port of Entry (POE) you plan to use to enter and exit the United States. This information will be used by USCIS to send your Permanent Resident Card to the appropriate POE for pick-up.

If you are currently an alien commuter and you have provided a foreign mailing address, please indicate which U.S. Port of Entry (POE) you use to enter and exit the United States in Item Number 2.h.1.a. USCIS will use this information to send your Permanent Resident Card to the appropriate POE for pick-up.

Reason for Application

Select only one box in Item Numbers 1.a. - 1.c. that describes your current immigration status.

Proceed to Section A. or Section B. based on the section that is applicable to you. Thoroughly read the instructions below before selecting the appropriate box in either Section A. or Section B.

If you have lost, stolen, or destroyed your Permanent Resident Card, select Item Number 2.a. You will need to submit a copy of your Permanent Resident Card if available, or a government-issued identification document that includes your name, date of birth, photograph, and signature, such as a passport, drivers license, or military identification document. You must also include the required filing fee and biometric services fee if you are filing under this reason.

Item Number 2.b. If you never received your Permanent Resident Card, select Item Number 2.b. and submit a copy of your latest Form I-797, Notice of Action, for any of the following forms that should have resulted in issuance of your Permanent Resident Card: Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status; Form I-751, Petition to Remove the Conditions of Residence; Form I-829, Petition by Entrepreneur to Remove Conditions; Form I-698, Application to Adjust Status from Temporary to Permanent Resident; Form I-881, Application for Suspension of Deportation or Special Rule Cancellation of Removal (Pursuant to Section 203 of Public Law 105-100 (NACARA)); EOIR-42B, Application for Cancellation and Adjustment of Status for Certain Nonpermanent Residents; or Form I-90. You may also submit a copy of the page in your passport showing the I-551 stamp you received upon admission if you were admitted as an immigrant. In addition, provide a copy of a government-issued form of identification that contains your name, date of birth, photograph, and signature, such as a passport, driver's license, or military identification document. No filing fee or biometric services fee are required if filing using reason "2.b." This reason is only applicable to lawful permanent residents or permanent residents in commuter status.

NOTE: It is important to note that you should not select reason "2.b." if your Permanent Resident Card was mailed to the address you provided and was never returned as undeliverable to USCIS. You can check if your card was returned by checking your case status online at www.uscis.gov/casestatus or by calling the USCIS National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283. If your card was not returned as undeliverable, you should file Form I-90 using reason "2.a." (My previous card has been lost, stolen, or destroyed).

Item Number 2.c. If your Permanent Resident Card has been damaged or mutilated, you should select reason "2.c." on Form I-90. Along with your application, you need to submit a copy of your damaged card or a government-issued ID containing your name, date of birth, photograph, and signature. You also need to pay the filing fee and biometric services fee if applicable.

Item Number 2.d. If your card has incorrect data due to a Department of Homeland Security error, you should select reason "2.d." on the application. You should also attach your original Permanent Resident Card that was issued with the incorrect data, and not a copy of the card.

You must provide evidence of your correct name or biographical data, such as an original court order, marriage certificate, divorce decree, birth certificate, adoption decree, passport, or relevant court documents. The legal name change documents submitted as proof of a name change must be registered with the appropriate civil authority. If you choose to file under reason "2.d." (existing card has incorrect data because of DHS error), you are not required to pay a filing fee or biometric services fee.

Please note that if the error on your Permanent Resident Card was not caused by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), you cannot use reason "2.d." to file Form I-90. Instead, you must use reason "2.e." if your name or other biographic information has been legally changed since the issuance of your existing card. You will need to include legal documents that reflect the name change, such as a marriage certificate or court order, and pay the appropriate filing fee and biometric services fee.

Item Number 2.e. Reason "2.e." can be selected if there has been a legal change in your name or other biographic information since the issuance of your current card. This reason can also be chosen if your card contains incorrect information that was not caused by the Department of Homeland Security. In the case of a legal name change, you must provide legal documents such as a registered copy of your marriage certificate, divorce decree, adoption decree, or other court-issued documents that reflect the name change. These documents must have been registered with the appropriate civil authority. If you are filing an application using reason "2.e.," you must include the filing fee and biometric services fee with your application.

Item Number 2.f. Reason "2.f." can be selected if your current card has already expired or will expire within the next six months. It is important to note that if your current card will not expire within the next six months and you still select this reason, your application may be denied. To support your application, you must submit a copy of your expired or expiring Permanent Resident Card. Additionally, if you are filing using reason "2.f.," you must include the filing fee and biometric services fee with your application.

Item Number 2.g.1. If you have recently turned 14 years old and are registering as required, and your current Permanent Resident Card will expire after your 16th birthday, you may select reason "2.g.1." However, if you are filing this application before your 14th birthday or more than 30 days after your 14th birthday, you must select reason "2.j." If your card has already expired, you must use reason "2.f." When filing Form I-90 using reason "2.g.1.," you must submit a copy of your current Permanent Resident Card. Additionally, if you are using this reason, you must include only the biometric services fee with your application, as no filing fee is required.

Once a lawful permanent resident reaches 14 years of age, they must register and submit Form I-90, which requires registration and fingerprinting within 30 days. If you did not file this application within 30 days of turning 14, you must file using reason "2.f." (My existing card will expire in six months or has already expired).

However, if your existing card will expire before your 16th birthday, you cannot use this reason and must instead file using reason "2.g.2." (I have reached my 14th birthday, and my existing card will expire before my 16th birthday).

It is important to note that if your card has already expired, you cannot file using reason "2.g.2." and must instead use reason "2.f." (My existing card has already expired or will expire in six months).

Item Number 2.g.2. If you have reached your 14th birthday and are registering as required, and your current Permanent Resident Card will expire before your 16th birthday, you may select reason "2.g.2." However, if you are filing this application before your 14th birthday or more than 30 days after your 14th birthday, you must select reason "2.j." If your card has already expired, you must use reason "2.f." When using reason "2.g.2.," you must submit a copy of your current Permanent Resident Card. Additionally, if you are using this reason, you must include both the filing fee and biometric services fee with your application.

Reason "2.g.2." can only be selected if your current Permanent Resident Card was issued before your 14th birthday, and you are now filing this application for registration purposes. After reaching 14 years of age, it is required that a lawful permanent resident register and submit Form I-90, which includes registration and fingerprinting within 30 days.

However, if your existing card will expire after your 16th birthday, you cannot use reason "2.g.2." and must instead file using reason "2.g.1." (I have reached my 14th birthday, and my existing card will expire after my 16th birthday).

It is important to note that if your card has already expired, you cannot use reason "2.g.2." and must instead use reason "2.f." (My existing card has already expired or will expire in six months).

Item Number 2.h.1. If you are a lawful permanent resident alien who will live outside of the United States and commute to employment within the United States, you may select reason "2.h." This is also known as commuter status. However, only lawful permanent resident aliens who are employed in the United States and reside in a contiguous foreign territory (Mexico or Canada) are eligible for commuter status. In the designated space, you must type or print the city or town and state of the United States POE that you will use to enter and exit the United States. You can pick up your card directly from that POE. If the city or town has more than one POE, you must provide additional information such as an airport, bridge, or tunnel name in Part 8. Additional Information to assist USCIS in identifying to which POE we should mail your card.

To be eligible for commuter status under reason "2.h.1.," you must be a lawful permanent resident alien who is employed in the United States. In addition, you must submit evidence of your employment that is dated within the last six months. This evidence may include employment pay stubs and/or a letter from your employer on the employers letterhead, containing the address and phone number of your employer. If you are filing using reason "2.h.1.," you must include both the filing fee and biometric services fee with your application.

Item Number 2.h.2. If you are currently in commuter status and will be establishing a residence in the United States, you may select reason "2.h.2." This reason is applicable if you will be changing your status from commuter status to lawful permanent resident status. You must submit evidence of your U.S. residence, such as a copy of a lease agreement, deed, or utility bills dated within the last six months. If the utility bills or other proof of residence are in your spouse or parents name, you must provide a copy of your original marriage or birth certificate as applicable. If you are filing using reason "2.h.2.," you must include both the filing fee and biometric services fee with your application.

Item Number 2.i. If you have been automatically converted to lawful permanent resident status, you may select reason "2.i." When using this reason, you must submit evidence of your temporary residence status, which may include a copy of your Form I-797 for Form I-700. In addition, you must also provide a copy of a government-issued form of identification that contains your name, date of birth, photograph, and signature (such as a passport, drivers license, or military identification document). If you are filing using reason "2.i.," you must include both the filing fee and biometric services fee with your application.

Item Number 2.j. If you have an old edition of the Alien Registration Card or you wish to replace your current Permanent Resident Card for a reason that is not specified above, you may select reason "2.j." This reason can be used for any circumstance not covered by the other categories mentioned. When using this reason, you must submit a copy of your Alien Registration Card or current Permanent Resident Card. If you are filing using reason "2.j.," you must include both the filing fee and biometric services fee with your application.

Section B. This section is only for conditional permanent residents and should not be used by lawful permanent residents or permanent residents in commuter status.

If you are a conditional permanent resident, you may complete this section. However, if you are not a conditional permanent resident, you must complete Section A instead.

Item Number 3.a. If your Permanent Resident Card has been lost, stolen, or destroyed, you may select reason "3.a." When using this reason, you must submit a copy of your Permanent Resident Card or a government-issued form of identification that contains your name, date of birth, photograph, and signature (such as a passport, drivers license, or military identification document). If you are filing using reason "3.a.," you must include both the filing fee and biometric services fee with your application.

Item Number 3.b. If you have not received your Permanent Resident Card, you may select reason "3.b." This reason can be used if you never received your card. When using this reason, you must submit a copy of the latest Form I-797 for Form I-485 or Form I-90 that should have resulted in the issuance of your Permanent Resident Card. If you were admitted as an immigrant, you may submit a copy of the page in your passport showing the I-551 stamp you received upon admission. In addition, you must also submit a copy of a government-issued form of identification that contains your name, date of birth, photograph, and signature (such as a passport, drivers license, or military identification document). No filing fee or biometric services fee are required if filing using reason "3.b."

NOTE: You should not select reason "3.b." for filing if your card was mailed to the address you provided and was never returned as undeliverable to USCIS. To determine if your card was returned to USCIS, you can check your case status online at www.uscis.gov/casestatus or call the USCIS National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing), call 1-800-767-1833

Item Number 3.c. If your Permanent Resident Card has been mutilated or partially destroyed, you may select reason "3.c." When using this reason, you must submit a copy of your Permanent Resident Card or a government-issued form of identification that contains your name, date of birth, photograph, and signature (such as a passport, drivers license, or military identification document). If you are filing using reason "3.c.," you must include both the filing fee and biometric services fee with your application.

Item Number 3.d. If your Permanent Resident Card has incorrect data, and the error was caused by DHS, you may select reason "3.d." When using this reason, you must attach the original Permanent Resident Card that was issued with the incorrect data; a copy of the card is not acceptable in this case. In addition, you must include proof of your correct name or biographical data, such as a copy of the original court order reflecting your name or a copy of your original marriage certificate, divorce decree, birth certificate, adoption decree, passport, or applicable court documents, etc. Legal name change documents submitted as evidence of a name change must have been registered with the proper civil authority.

No filing fee or biometric services fee are required if filing using reason "3.d."

NOTE: If you were married for two or more years when you obtained conditional permanent residence and you believe you were misclassified as a conditional permanent resident, you should file Form I-90 under reason "2.d." When using this reason, you should include a copy of your marriage certificate with your application to support your claim.

NOTE: If the error was not caused by DHS, you should not select reason "2.d." for filing. Instead, you must file using reason "3.e." (My name or other biographic information has been legally changed since issuance of my existing card).

Item Number 3.e. My name or other biographic information has legally changed since the issuance of my existing card. If your biographical information has changed since the issuance of your card or your card has incorrect data, and the error was not caused by USCIS, you may select reason "3.e." When using this reason, you must submit a copy of the original court order reflecting your new name or a copy of your original marriage certificate, divorce decree, birth certificate, adoption decree, passport, or applicable court documents, etc. A marriage certificate or court documents submitted as evidence of name change must have been registered with the proper civil authority.

You must include the filing fee and biometric services fee with your application if filing using reason "3.e."

Part 4. Accommodations for Individuals With Disabilities and/or Impairments

USCIS is dedicated to offering appropriate accommodations for eligible individuals with disabilities and/or impairments to support their full participation in USCIS benefits and programs.

Reasonable accommodations are specific to each individual's disability or impairment and may involve adjustments to procedures or practices. USCIS provides a range of accommodations, such as:

- 1 For individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing, USCIS may provide a sign-language interpreter during interviews or other appointments related to immigration benefits.
- 2 If you have low vision or are blind, USCIS may allow you to take written tests orally instead of in writing.
- 2 If you are unable to travel to a designated USCIS location for an interview, USCIS may arrange to conduct the interview at your home or in a hospital.

In the space provided, describe the specific types of accommodations you are requesting. If you require a sign-language interpreter, please indicate the language needed. If you need additional space to provide more information within the application, you may use the space provided in Part 8. Additional Information.

NOTE: You do not need to contact USCIS to request an accommodation for physical access to a domestic USCIS office as all domestic USCIS facilities meet the Accessibility Guidelines of the Americans with Disabilities Act. However, in Part 4. of this application, you can indicate if you use a wheelchair to help USCIS prepare for your visit.

NOTE: Additionally, USCIS is committed to providing meaningful access to limited English proficient law. LEP individuals may bring a qualified interpreter to the interview.

USCIS will review requests for reasonable accommodations on an individual basis and will do their best to provide appropriate accommodations for any disabilities or impairments. The agency will not deny your application or exclude you from participating in USCIS programs because of your disabilities or impairments. Requesting an accommodation also does not affect your eligibility for any immigration benefit.

For Immigration Court hearings: The Immigration Court is also committed to accommodating individuals with disabilities or impairments. If your case is currently pending before the Immigration Court, it is recommended that you inform the court of any accommodation needs prior to your first hearing with an immigration judge. The court will consider all requests for accommodations on a case-by-case basis.

This statement explains that interpreters are provided at no cost to individuals who cannot understand and participate in removal proceedings due to their limited English proficiency. The Immigration Court strives to accommodate the language needs of all parties involved in the proceedings and will arrange for an interpreter during both the individual and master calendar hearings as needed.

Item Numbers 1.a.-6.b. To indicate whether you completed the application yourself or with the help of an interpreter, select the appropriate box. If you used a preparer to assist you in completing the application, select the box indicating so. It is important to sign and date the application and provide a daytime telephone number, mobile telephone number (if any), and email address (if any). The application must contain your signature, or the signature of your parent or legal guardian, if applicable. A stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable.

Item Numbers 1.a.-7.b. If you had someone assist you as an interpreter to understand the instructions and questions on this application in a language that you understand, that person should complete this section of the application. They should provide their name, the name and address of their business or organization (if applicable), their daytime telephone number, mobile telephone number (if any), and email address (if any). The interpreter must sign and date the application.

Item Numbers 1.a. - 8.b. This section should be completed by the person who assisted you in preparing this application, if other than yourself. If the same person acted as both your interpreter and preparer, they should complete both Part 6 and Part 7. If the preparer is associated with a business or organization, they should provide the name and address information of that entity. It is mandatory for anyone who helped you prepare this application to sign and date it, and a stamped or typewritten name is not acceptable. If the preparer is an attorney or accredited representative and their representation extends beyond just preparing this application, they may also need to submit Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative, along with your application.

Item Numbers 1.a. - 7.d. If you require additional space to provide any further information within the application, use the space provided in Part 8. Additional Information. If the space provided in Part 8. is insufficient, you may create additional copies of Part 8. to complete and file with your application or attach a separate sheet of paper. At the top of each sheet, type or print your name and A-Number (if applicable), indicate the Page Number, Part Number, and Item Number to which your response refers, and sign and date each sheet.

It is recommended that you keep a copy of your completed application for your records. If you have a biometric services appointment at a USCIS ASC, it is also recommended that you review your completed application before the appointment. During the appointment, you will be required to confirm, under penalty of perjury, that all of the information in your application is complete, true, and correct. If you are unable to make this attestation at that time, you will need to schedule another appointment.

There is a filing fee of $455 for Form I-90, which is determined by the reason for filing as explained in Part 2 of the instructions. If your application also requires biometric services, there is an additional biometric services fee of $85.

NOTE: The filing fee and biometric services fee cannot be refunded, regardless of the outcome of the application. Do not send cash; all fees must be submitted in the exact amount. When preparing checks or money orders for the Form I-90 filing fee and biometric services fee, follow these guidelines:

- 1 The checks or money orders must be drawn from a bank or other financial institution located in the United States and payable in U.S. currency.
- 2 Make the checks or money orders payable to U.S. Department of Homeland Security, spelled out in full. Do not use the initials “USDHS” or “DHS.”

If you choose to make a payment by check, please note that USCIS will convert it into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means that USCIS will make a copy of your check and use the account information to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually take 24 hours, and your bank will record it on your account statement.

Please be aware that you will not receive your original check back. Instead, USCIS will destroy your original check but retain a copy of it. If USCIS is unable to process the EFT for technical reasons, you authorize us to process the copy in place of your original check. If your check is returned as unpayable, USCIS will make another attempt to submit the payment to the financial institution. If the check is returned as unpayable for a second time, USCIS will reject your application and assess a returned check fee.

other electronic transmission, or telephone, conducting unannounced physical site inspections of your residence or place of employment, and conducting interviews. The purpose of this verification is to assess your compliance with the laws and determine your eligibility for the immigration benefit.

If USCIS obtains adverse or derogatory information through compliance review, verification, or site visit, it will provide you with an opportunity to address it, subject to the restrictions under 8 CFR 103.2(b)(16). This opportunity will be provided after a formal decision has been made on your case or after the agency has initiated an adverse action that may result in revocation or termination of an approval.
